Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order

- 3. On February 1, 2006, Respondents were issued an Owner's Gambling License (No. 990060) to operate the Cameo Club located at 5757 Pacific Avenue, # 7, Stockton. California 95207. This license was valid for one year until January 31, 2007. The license has been renewed by the Commission and is currently valid until January 31, 2009.
- 4. Prior to February 16, 2007, Respondents moved the Cameo Club to 552 West Benjamin Holt Drive, Stockton, California 95207. Respondents moved to this new location without notice or approval of the California Gambling Control Commission (Commission) or the Bureau. However, the Respondents contend that an application for a new license at the new location was pending at the Bureau at the time the Cameo Club was moved.
- 5. On February 16, 2007, during a site visit, Bureau Special Agent Supervisor Ron Nakabayashi discovered that the Cameo Club was operating at its new location without first obtaining a license for the new location. SAS Nakabayashi notified Respondents of this violation during the site visit. Respondents dispute that they were so notified.
- 6. On March 8, 2007, the Bureau sent a violation notice to the Respondents' Designated Agent, Chris Ray, for operating a gambling establishment without first obtaining a State Gambling License for its new location at 552 West Benjamin Holt Drive, Stockton, California. On or about March 8, 2007, the Bureau also notified the Commission that this violation letter was sent to the designated agent for the Cameo Club.
- 7. On March 18, 2007, designated agent Mr. Ray, responded to the Notice of Violation by sending to the Bureau a copy of a new license showing the new location. Mr. Ray said he received this new license dated February 1, 2007, on March 19, 2007. The Commission, in its letter to Respondents dated March 12, 2007, states that the request to relocate was approved on March 9, 2007.
- 8. On September 27, 2007, the Complainant filed the accusation in this matter. On October 30, 2007, the Respondents filed a Notice of Defense. V Settlement discussions were initiated thereafter that led to this Stipulated Settlement. Respondents, during the course of settlement discussions said that they are in negotiations to sell the Cameo Club and that it may be sold and transferred to a new owner soon.

JURISDICTION

- 9. The parties agree that the attached Accusation was properly brought by the Bureau is properly before the Commission pursuant to the authority of Business and Professions Code including, but not limited to, sections 19824, 19825 and 19826.
- 10. The parties agree that the Commission has jurisdiction over this matter and has authority to approve this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.

STIPULATED SETTLEMENT

- 11. Subject to the approval of the Commission, the Bureau and Respondents stipulate and agree to settle this matter on the following terms and conditions.
- 12. Respondents, for the purpose of this settlement only, admit the allegations in the attached Accusation and waive any right to appeal, challenge or collaterally attack those allegations..
- 13. Respondent agrees to be bound by the Commission's imposition of discipline and fine as set forth in the Disciplinary Order below and waive any right to appeal, challenge or collaterally attack the terms of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.
- 14. The Bureau agrees, for the purpose of this settlement only, to waive its costs with respect to the attached Accusation provided that there are no additional or similar violations related to the content or posting of the license by Respondents for twelve (12) months after the date of this Disciplinary Order, or until the Cameo Club is sold and transferred to a new owner, which ever is sooner, provided that Respondents comply with all the terms of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.
- 15. This Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order is subject to approval by the Commission. The parties agree that this matter shall be considered by the Commission in closed session. Respondents also specifically agree that counsel for the Bureau may communicate directly with the Commission or its staff regarding this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order during closed session without participation by Respondents or their counsel, and that no such communications shall be deemed a prohibited ex parte communication.

- 16. Respondents, in consultation with their attorney, have read and understand the charges and allegations in the Accusation. Respondents, also in consultation with their attorney, have also read and understand the terms of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.
- 17. Respondents are aware of their administrative rights in this matter, including: the right to a hearing, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses, the right to present evidence and to testify, the right to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and all other rights accorded by the California Administrative Procedure Act and other applicable laws. Respondents, in consultation with their attorney, voluntarily and knowingly waive and give up each such right with respect to this matter.
- 18. If the Commission fails to adopt this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, then it shall be of no force or effect and it shall be inadmissible in any legal action involving the parties or for any purpose.
- 19. If the Commission fails to adopt this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, then this matter shall proceed to an evidentiary hearing as scheduled by the Office of Administrative Hearings. In that event, then the Commission's consideration of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order shall not in any way disqualify the Bureau from prosecuting or the Commission from deciding the issues raised in the Accusation or from taking further or other action with respect to the Respondents or the Respondents' operation of the Cameo Club.
- 20. Nothing in this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order is intended to delay or limit other remedies that may be available to the Bureau or the Commission to enforce other or subsequent violations by Respondents, if any, of the terms and conditions of the Respondent's gambling license or of any applicable laws and regulations.
- 21. In consideration of the foregoing agreements, admissions and stipulations, the parties agree that the Commission may, without further notice or formal proceeding, issue and enter the following Disciplinary Order:

DISCIPLINARY ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 1. Respondents shall pay a fine of $40,000 to the Bureau for the violations in the attached Accusation. Half of the fine ($20,000) is immediately due and payable by Respondents on the date that this Order is signed. The remaining half of the fine ($20,000) will be waived if the Respondents comply with this Order and have no additional or similar violations related to the content or posting of the license for twelve (12) months from the date of this Order, or until the Cameo Club is sold and transferred to a new owner, which ever is sooner. Respondents are jointly and severally liable for the payment of this fine and for compliance with the terms and conditions of the waiver.
- 2. Respondents shall at all times maintain and properly post at the Cameo Club a current Owners' Gambling License, with the correct address, as issued by the Commission.
- 3. Respondents shall file timely and complete renewal applications for Owners' Gambling License to the Bureau at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the license.
- 4. Respondent shall obey all state and federal laws and regulations substantially related to, or governing the practice of, gambling establishments.
- 5. Respondent shall cooperate during the Bureau's and Commission's monitoring, inspections and investigation of Respondent's compliance with the terms and conditions of her license, applicable laws and regulations, and the Stipulated Settlement or this Order.
- 6. The payment of the fines required by paragraph 1 of this Order shall be made payable to the "Bureau of Gambling Control" and delivered on the date due to the Bureau at 1425 River Park Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, California 5815.
